

BPL is a very poor choice of technology and should be completely discarded. Competeing delivery mechonisms deliver much more without any negative effects. The HF bands are too valuable as a backup to be sacrificed to what is obviously a pet project to some poorly informed regulator. We don't need it in Alaska, so why should we need it anywhere in the ConUS? Please, PLEASE stop BPL!